MADISON, Wis. (10/01/2014) — CUNA Strategic Services, Inc., has added CU People, Inc., as a new alliance provider to give credit unions a payroll administration solution. In conjunction with the relationship, CU People will provide exclusive discounts to credit unions along with value added tools and resources as part of their standard service.

“CUNA Strategic Services through CU People is now able to bring credit unions a high quality state-of-the-art payroll solution service. Outsourcing the payroll function allows credit unions to gain scale and focus resources as they increase their value to members,” says Wes Millar, CUNA Strategic Services senior vice president.

CU People’s suite of payroll administration services covers everything, from payroll processing to ACA reporting. Some of the features include:

- Payroll processing
- Tax reporting & fulfillment
- Online payroll portal (employee & employer)
- Integrated time & attendance
- ACA reporting & compliance

All of this is managed by a dedicated payroll specialist that understands your credit union and your strategic payroll objectives.

“CU People is pleased to have the opportunity to work with CUNA Strategic Services to serve America’s credit unions and allow them to focus on their core competencies,” says Steve Swanston, CU People’s executive vice president. “In keeping with credit unions’ values, our company embodies and enables a collaborative work culture, knowledgeable staff and quality, personal service.”
