DELIVERING THE SERVICES YOU NEED.

CU People offers comprehensive service and support for the HR functions your financial institution needs on a daily basis including:

- Human Resource Administration – we're ready to tackle the daily administrative tasks such as employee handbook and policy reviews, standardizing forms and job descriptions, hiring and termination needs and associated paperwork, compliance assistance with State & Federal laws, FMLA tracking and COBRA administration to name a few.
- Benefits Administration – gain efficiencies in managing new hires and life events, with online enrollments and seamless communication of deductions to payroll and benefits carriers.
- Payroll Administration – we provide complete fulfillment including management of all payroll taxes, benefit deductions, time-off and accruals, and all W2 and W3 reporting.
- Human Resource Information Systems (HRIS) – automate processes that have typically been manual to save time and minimize errors. Consolidate recruiting, time & attendance, benefits administration and performance management into a single, hosted solution.

Flexible, comprehensive HR services tailored for your financial institution, designed to meet your unique requirements. That's what we deliver. And that's just part of what makes CU People the perfect fit for your human resource needs.
