

For Immediate Release

CU People, Inc. Announces Internal Promotion

HOUSTON, Texas (October 1, 2013) – CU People, Inc. (CUPI), a human resources and administrative outsourcing consulting firm for financial institutions, located in Houston, Texas, announces the promotion of Carrie Boudreaux to vice president of operations.

Carrie has served with CU People for 8 years as the director of payroll, overseeing the firm’s tactical delivery of payroll services to its many Texas credit union clients. In her new role she will take on more of a strategic initiative, not only continuing to oversee payroll operations but also managing the firm’s utilization of technological resources and developing continued best practices.

“Carrie was the natural fit to lead operations. Her extensive knowledge of payroll and administration as well as her grasp of the technology component will be critical to our success as we continue to position ourselves for growth,” said Steve Swanston, CU People’s executive vice president.

About CUPI:

CU People (CUPI), is a leading provider of human resource outsourcing solutions. For 13 years, CUPI has been recognized as the preeminent outlet to provide HR expertise to financial institutions – freeing them to concentrate on strategic initiatives, versus tactical administration. Through CUPI’s value-added services, companies can realize improved data integrity, streamlined HR processes, and eased HR administrative burdens – all of which allows businesses to re-focus their efforts and concentrate on improving their bottom line!

Media Inquiries Contact:

Steve Swanston

sswanston@cupeople.com

281-243-6417